

California Privacy Policy (CCPA/CPRA + AB 713 Compliant)

Effective Date: 01/13/2026

This California Privacy Policy supplements the information contained in our Notice of Privacy Practices and applies solely to California residents. This policy is provided in accordance with the California Consumer Privacy Act (CCPA), as amended by the California Privacy Rights Act (CPRA), and California Assembly Bill 713 (AB 713).

This policy explains how we collect, use, disclose, sell, or license personal information and de-identified patient information.

1. Information We Collect

We may collect the following categories of personal information:

- Identifiers (e.g., name, address, email, phone number)
- Medical information regulated under the California Confidentiality of Medical Information Act (CMIA)
- Health information protected under HIPAA
- Internet or device information
- Professional or employment information
- Other information you provide
- De-identified patient information

We also create and use de-identified patient information that meets the de-identification standards of the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA).

2. How We Use Personal Information

We may use personal information for:

- Providing pathology and diagnostic services
- Billing, payment, and administrative operations
- Quality assurance and internal analytics
- Compliance with legal and regulatory obligations
- Security and fraud prevention

- Research and operational purposes permitted by law

We do not use personal information for automated decision-making or profiling that produces legal or significant effects.

3. Sale or Sharing of Personal Information

We do not sell or share personal information as defined under the CCPA/CPRA.

We do not sell, disclose, or transfer protected health information (PHI) or identifiable medical information for monetary or other valuable consideration.

4. Sale or Licensing of De-Identified Patient Information (AB 713 Required Disclosure)

In accordance with California Civil Code §1798.121 and AB 713, we disclose the following:

We may sell or license de-identified patient information.

- All de-identified information meets the de-identification standards of 45 C.F.R. §164.514(a)–(b) (HIPAA Safe Harbor or Expert Determination).
- De-identified information is not considered personal information or PHI.
- De-identified information may be used for research, analytics, algorithm development, quality improvement, or other lawful purposes.

Required Contractual Restrictions (AB 713)

All contracts for the sale or license of de-identified patient information include:

- A prohibition on re-identification
- A requirement that the recipient not attempt to re-identify the information
- A requirement that the recipient not further disclose the information except as permitted
- A requirement that the data meet HIPAA de-identification standards
- A requirement that the recipient implement reasonable safeguards to prevent re-identification

5. Your Rights Under the CCPA/CPRA

Sale of Medical Information

We do not sell your protected health information (PHI). In accordance with HIPAA and the California Confidentiality of Medical Information Act (CMIA), we will not sell, disclose, or transfer your identifiable medical information for monetary or other valuable consideration without your written authorization. Any authorization for such a disclosure will clearly state that the disclosure involves remuneration.

Use of De-Identified Information

We may use or disclose information that has been de-identified in accordance with HIPAA standards. De-identified information is not considered PHI and may be used or disclosed without your authorization.

If de-identified patient information is sold or licensed as permitted under California law, all such disclosures are subject to contractual prohibitions on re-identification and must comply with applicable state and federal requirements.

Administrative Fees

Any fees charged for the retrieval, preparation, de-identification, or handling of medical records or retained pathology materials represent cost-based reimbursement for labor and services only and do not constitute the sale of medical information.

Our Uses and Disclosures

Help manage the health care treatment you receive. We can use your health information and share it with professionals who are treating you.

Run our organization. We can use and disclose your information to run our organization and contact you when necessary.

Bill for your services. We can use and disclose your health information as we pay for your health services.

Help with public health and safety issues. We can share health information for certain situations such as:

- Preventing disease
- Helping with product recalls
- Reporting adverse reactions to medications
- Reporting suspected abuse, neglect, or domestic violence
- Preventing or reducing a serious threat to anyone's health or safety

Comply with the law. We will share information about you if required by federal or state law, including with the Department of Health and Human Services.

Respond to lawsuits and legal actions. We may share information in response to a court order, administrative order, or subpoena.

Use and Disclosure of De-Identified Information

We may use or disclose information that has been de-identified so that it can no longer be used to identify you. De-identified information is not PHI and is not subject to HIPAA privacy protections. When de-identified patient information is disclosed, sold, or licensed in accordance with California Civil Code §1798.121 and AB 713, we require recipients to agree not to attempt to re-identify the information and to comply with all applicable restrictions on further use or disclosure.

Our Responsibilities

- We are required by law to maintain the privacy and security of your PHI
- We will let you know promptly if a breach occurs that may compromise your information
- We must follow the duties and privacy practices described in this notice
- We will not use or share your information other than as described here unless you tell us we can in writing. You may revoke your authorization at any time.

We do not sell PHI. If we ever seek your authorization to disclose PHI in exchange for remuneration, we will inform you in advance and obtain your written permission. Any administrative fees we charge for retrieving, preparing, or de-identifying records reflect cost-based reimbursement for labor and services and do not constitute the sale of medical information.

Changes to the Terms of This Notice

We can change the terms of this notice, and the changes will apply to all information we have about you. The new notice will be available upon request.
